(Hopefully our crazy staff doesn't scare you away)

Hi There,

We hope that you had a great time at Impact (or that you will when you visit us if you haven't yet.) Impact for many people becomes one of the greatest parts of their time in Okinawa. We often hear from students that have left the ministry 5, 7 or 9 years ago that point to Impact and Quest as some of the best times in their lives.

Often people will make life long friends as they build great memories on different retreats and events.

If there is anything that we can help you with please don't hesitate to contact us.

All the best, Buddy

“It’s hard to meet good people when you move to a new place, but at Impact you meet some really cool true friends that you will have for the rest of our life.”
 –Rebecca Albrecht

Want to get involved in a cell group? What are cell groups, you ask. Cell groups are small groups which meet outside of Impact during the week. They are led by student leaders and their purpose is to assist your growth in loving God and loving people!
